

Technical Project Manager in Matas Group Digital

Over the past years, Matas Group has undergone a radical digital transformation, which places new demands on the type of skills we want to recruit. Matas Group is today a fully integrated omnichannel company with more than 25% of revenue in the pure digital channels, but we have great ambitions to create even better and innovative user experiences both in the individual channels and across.

Joining Matas Group you will be a part of a dynamic and ambitious workplace with engaged and competent colleagues.

Join us and be part of our exciting journey!

About the role

We are committed to providing our customers with the best possible experience. To enhance our effectiveness in achieving this goal, we are strengthening our project team across the organization. We are therefore seeking a Technical Project Manager to join and support our team at Matas Group Digital Projects.

In this role, you will be responsible for leading and coordinating technical projects from start to finish, across various solutions and platforms. Your ability to manage multiple projects and tasks both in parallel and across different departments and external suppliers will be crucial to your success in this role.

Together with our development teams and business units, you will work closely to ensure the successful execution of projects across the Matas Group. Technical expertise and experience with e-commerce platforms and services will be an advantage. You will be part of a skilled and passionate team focused on e-commerce, with the ambition of taking our online business to new heights.

The role is located in our Matas HQ in Allerød. Your team members in Digital Projects are located at the offices in Århus, Allerød and Stockholm.
